Pueblo, COLO. -The Pueblo Bulls are excited to announce 2002-born Bulls Goaltender, Alex Houston, has signed with the Cornwall Colts of the CCHL a Tier II Canadian League.

The Canton, Ohio native joined the Bulls this past season after spending the 2019-20 season playing with the prestigious USHS Prep, Gilmour Academy. Houston finished his season with the Bulls with 2.96 goals against average and a .960 save percentage, including a shutout performance in relief versus the Utah Outliers.

“Coming to Pueblo was an absolute blessing for me this year,” said Houston. “The coaching staff made me feel right at home the first day I stepped in the rink and provided everything we needed and more from day one. If you’re looking to play junior hockey there is not a better place to play when it comes to competition, coaching staff and environment. Thank you, Pueblo!”

“Cornwall is getting an extremely dedicated and detail-oriented goaltender in, Alex,” said Bulls Assistant General Manager, Tyler Tuneberg. “Alex is a student of the game and someone that puts the work in on and off the ice. He was tremendous for us and someone we felt extremely lucky to get in a crazy year. Alex has great fundamentals and is very athletic at the same time, which will be key for him in moving up the junior ranks.”

“We are so excited for Alex to move on to the next level in the CCHL. He will be a great goaltender for the Colts and an even better person to have in their organization! We can’t thank Alex enough for his time with the Bulls and we are excited to continue to watch his progression in the years to come! He has a very bright future ahead of him,” added Tuneberg.
