HOCKEY CLUB

The Pueblo Bulls are excited to announce the commitment of the first captain in Bulls history, Wyatt Andres, a 2000-born forward from Brainerd, MN. Wyatt has committed to play at New England College, an NCAA DIV III school playing in the prestigious New England Hockey Conference.

Wyatt finished his two-year tenure with the Bulls as the all-time leader in goals with 55, 5th all-time in assists with 45 and 4th all time in points with 100. In the 2020-21 season Wyatt amassed 27 goals 15 assists and 42 points in 42 games.

“Committing to play NCAA hockey at NEC has been an amazing experience and I can’t wait to see what the upcoming season brings.,” said Andres. “Playing for the Bulls the last two seasons has prepared me to go to the next level. My commitment wouldn’t have been possible without the help from the Pueblo Bulls coaching and organization.”

“Wyatt has exemplified leadership and a winning mentality over his two seasons in a Bulls uniform,” said Bulls Assistant Coach, Austin Hoff. “He has been someone that our staff has leaned on to be a go to guy on and off the ice. Wyatt has helped us create the Bulls culture and the winning tradition in our first two seasons.”

“We are very excited for Wyatt to continue his path at New England College and want to thank him for his tenure as a, Pueblo Bull. NEC is getting an unbelievable leader and person, as well as a tremendous hockey player! We wish Wyatt the best and will continue to follow him throughout his college career and life.”

The Pueblo Bulls are a JR 'A' U20 hockey team that plays out of Pueblo, Colorado. The Bulls have been in existence since 2019 and are members of the USPHL Premier. In just their second season the Bulls were able to hit the
